by F. Noel Perry

Wednesday, May 25
6:30 — 8:30 pm

Portola Valley Town Center

765 Portola Road, Portola Valley

Recently, Next 10 released a report, Many Shades of Green: Regional Distribution and Trends in California's Green Economy, 2011. Next 10's founder, F. Noel Perry, will discuss the emergence of a vibrant "Core Green Economy" in California and the future of green jobs in our state. He will also address the role green innovation plays in boosting our economy and the quality of our lives and how forward-looking policies can enhance our future prospects.
